LOCAL NEWS.

THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 14.

ANOTHER MEMORIAL. - The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, says: "Mr. Wilson presented, in the Senate, yesterday, a petition from a large number of loyal citizens, old residents and natives of Alexandria, controverting the assertions made in the petition of Judge Underwood, Tucker, the radical candidate for Mayor, and others, new comers and agitators. The petitioners state they are and always have been devoted to the Union, but that they have not been hunted down and know of none that have, nor do they know of any intention to disobey the laws, either on the part of the authorities or of private citizens. The whole trouble in Alexandria is made by a very few persons, lately settled in that city, who never neglect an opportunity to stir up strife and contention, and breed discontent in the minds of the colored people."

MISCHIEVOUS BOYS .- Among the many bad boys residing in the Third Ward, the worst perhaps are those who last night stretched a tight rope, about six inches above the ground, across the wooden pavement, at the corner of me. Columbus and Oronoco streets, and thereby caused many persons, among whom were several elderly gentlemen, to temporarily forget the 3rd commandment.

EINTRACHT.—The Eintracht Association of this city will produce on to-morrow (Friday) evening, at their rooms in Washington Hall building, the German play, entitled Der Gerade Weg Der Beste. It is a treat to witness the dramatic representations of this associatations to attend them.

EMPLOYMENT OF FREEDMEN. -- Col. S. P. Lee, Superintendent of the Freedmen's Bureau tor Alexandria and Fairfax counties, reports that during the ten days ending on the 10th instant, at the office in this city, 83 applications for servants were received, and 51 applieations for employment, all of whom were furnished with employment.

RED MEN'S BALL -The ball of the Red Men will be held at the Assembly Rooms, corner of King and Royal streets, to-night. We understand that some real Indians, members of the tribes now represented in Washington, will visit this city this evening, and be present at the ball to-night.

THE RIVER. -The steamers due here yesterday from Baltimore and the lower Potomac, arrived up last evening in good time. The current in the river this morning is as rapid as is needed. I now assert, emphatically, that if he remembered by some of the oldest watermen.

FRIENDSHIP FAIR .- The tair for the benefit of the Friendship Fire Company, which has been in progress at the Assembly Rooms for some time past, terminated last night.

MR. R. STUART DOUGLASS formerly of this city, has formed a partnership with Mr. Henry C. Sellman, for the purpose of conducting the mercantile business in Leesburg, Va.

THE FEAST OF PURIM. - Our Jewish friends will celebrate the "Feast of Purim" on Wednesday and Thursday evenings next, the 20th and 21st instants.

SHAD.-A few shad were in market this and were offered at $1.25 per pair. ARRESTS. - Several hotel theires and two female pick-pockets and shop-lifters were arrested in Washington, yesterday. THE WEATHER turned quite cold this morn-

POLICE REPORT-MAYOR'S OFFICE .-- A young man, giving his name as John Eldridge, and hailing from Baltimore, was arrested in this city this morning, on suspicion of having stolen a horse, which, though valuable, he was offering to sell for fifty dollars. The horse is held at the livery stable of Mr. William Legg, and the man, who is about five feet seven inches high, with a defect in his left eye, and having a freckled face and auburn hair, with the general appearance of a mulatto, was committed to jail for further examination.

MAGISTRATES' OFFICE. - No cases worth reporting at the Magistrates' Office this morn-

LECTURE ON MUSIC.—By reference to a no in Pennsylvania, and will give a free lecture on the elements and practice of sacred vocal music, in the lecture room of the M. E. Church South, to morrow (Friday) evening, at 71 which he is a native, and he is perhaps the only Southerner who has ever received compliments from the Northern musical public. *

CREAM PUFFS AND PRESERVED PEACHES .--Messrs. Henderson & Avery, No. 226 King street, will please accept our thanks for the treat-cream puffs and preserved peaches-sent to the Gazette office about lunch time this morning. These gentlemen have at their family grocery the best and nicest of everything ever kept in a store of that description.

LISH LAWN GRASS SEED, expressly for POR SALE.—One large Feather Bed, weighing 104 lbs., four large Pillows, and two Bolsters, by THOS. PERRY, mh 14-ff 15 King street.

THE RECEPTION given last night by some of the recently elected municipal officers, to their friends, at Coleman's restaurrnt, was a very pleasant affair, and passed off most agreeably. The bountiful repast which was spread, was enjoyed by a large number, and good feeling and harmony prevailed during the entire evening. Prior to the entertainment, the crowd assembled in front of the residence of the Mayor, and after repeated calls, Mr. Latham appeared and spoke as follows:

FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS: "I am pleased to see you on this occasion, and will tender you my heartfelt thanks for the honor of a re-election. My services for the past year have been somewhat arduous, and at times a little embarrassing; but, thank God, I was enabled to overcome every obstacle, and perform my duties satisfactorily to the people of Alexandria. Even my opponents accord me that jus-

I know that I entered upon the discharge of my duties with a consciencious determination to act without fear or favor; to deal out even-handed justice was my intention; and the assurances of my fellow-citizens from time to time convinced me that I had succeeded. I again tender you my thanks for this second manifestation of your kindness. I now turn to a subject that is not so pleasant, and I will remark here that I am personally reponsible for what I may utter, and that I do not intend to compromise my fellow-citizens. I speak for myself alone. For several days a radical sheet, published in this place, has been slandering and maligning the people of this city, and has directed several of its shafts at I will notice as many of them as my memory will permit, and will commence with the memorial" of Judge Underwood; that extraordinary literary effort, which should take rank with "Baron Munchausen" and "Gulliver's Travels." In five of the first six paragraphs a deliberate talsehood is inserted. The first paragraph asserts "that the military reconstruction bill, passed March 2, 1867, has been openly defied by the authorities," &c .- falsehood No. 1. Second. They base they refusal upon the ground that the laws of Virginia are paramount to those of the United States-falsehood No. 2.

Third. That the party elected Mayor is moreover disqualified by the law above referred to from holding the office-falsehood No. 3. Fourth. Moreover it was openly asserted upon tion, and those are fortunate who receive invi- the streets that blood would be spilled if the colored people attempted to vote-falsehood No. 4. The fifth falsehood is in paragraph six, in these words: "Nothing but the presence of a military force prevented the murder of good and true men, for simply attempting to vote," &c. I will now return to the fifth paragraph, which is a literary curiosity: "We can prove to the world that the union men are numerous enough and determined enough to do"-what? to "control the South, if Congress will place a guard at the polls to keep away the "rebels," and let them have it all their own way-and every person is a rebel who will not join them in their policy of destruction and confiscation. The other part of this document is taken up with instructions to Congress, and recommendations from the would be Senator. How modest! Very! I agree with the Gazette in the opinion that some of the signers to that memorial did not know the full force and weight of the language employed, and would not have affixed their names thereto if they had read it carefully before doing so. I will now allude to some of the malicious slanders that appeared against myself. You have read what purports to be the substance of a conversation between the editor and myself, and my card pronouncing it "erroneous." I prefer using mild language, as long as circumstances will justify. In this evening's issue he reasserts the same statement. and promises Mr. Josiah Millard's affidavit, it duplicates himself a hundred times, and produces a thousand Millards, I pronounce the statement false, and can sustain my denial by every other conversation of mine on the subject.

I had stated to Colonel Lee that I could pre serve the peace of the city. I stated the same to General Emory, who, in consequence of my expressed faith in my arrangements, and bility, &c., and as a Blood Purifier it has no at my solicitation, consented that his force should not interfere, until I found that my force was insufficient; and I was pleased to hear from his lips that my record, as a strict enforcer | ily should be without it. Sold by Druggists and of law and order, stood very fair in the proper department in Washington. I will say for the benefit of the individual who has made the assertion that I did not "start the project of having troops." I have no concealments. I, in the hurry to start to Washington, wrote in Col Lee's office, in pencil writing, an application for a co-operative force. I am not at liberty, at the present time, to state whose "project" it was .-I will say further that the individual (no false courtesy will prompt me to say gentleman, for his course in this controversy deprives him of all claims to such a character,) would not morning. They were of fair size and quality dare, at any other time, to assume the position he does to vent his spleen, and spit his venom against a crushed and down-trodden people. I feel satisfied that he desires, for party purposes, to excite some member of our community to commit some breach of the peace on his person, so that he can go whining to Congress, and get a special act for his protection.—
Further I caution that person to beware; the worm may turn and he may feel its fangs. I ing, and there was "a spit" of show for a few | do not say this as a threat, but as a caution. I wish now to hold up another person in his proper light I was at the First Ward polls when Mr. Tucker deposited his vote. He then presented a colored man's vote, which the Commissioners firmly and politely refused. He appeared anxious that some person should crowd him. He twisted his body and raised his elbows and remarked, "don't crowd me, don't push me," when the only persons on his right were the colored voter alluded to and myself. There were two or three on his left, waiting to vote, who were there before he came up. They were detained, through respect to Mr. Tucker, and no vote was received until he withdrew. There were about one dozen colored men in the room, and there was not one improper word used to-wards them. When he retired they all retired with him. During the election day one of General Emory's staff was in my office all day.

Three were there alternately during the day.
Sometime in the afternoon Capt. Russel came and informed me that it had been reported to will be seen that Mr. R. M. McIntosh, author terfered with, and that Union voters were josof Tabor, or The Richmond Collection of Sa- | tled, &c. The Captain and myself repaired cred Music, has returned from a lecturing tour thither; everything was quiet; in fact the Captain remarked that it was the most quiet election he had ever witnessed. After a conversation with the Commissioners, we retired, and he reported to the General. I learn from Captain Russel that the complaint was made by Mr. o'clock. Mr. McIntosh is represented as the George Tucker, and that a nervous young man most accomplished and thorough musical assured the General that it was as much as a scholar in this country. His merits have been Union man's life was worth to attempt to vote at the Third Ward and entrested him in conuniversally acknowledged in the South, of at the Third Ward, and entreated him, in conjunction with Mr. Tucker, to send a guard there. Our city is infested at this time with a few (thank God they are few) such men, whose acts of malice, and for the purpose of self aggrandizement, would upturn the peace of the city, and destroy every vestige of civil law. I regret the necessity for speaking thus, but these are no times for the practice of false notions of delicacy; no times for the "soft blandishments of flattery, but the severe language of truth." These men should be held up in all their hideousness to the public gaze, and all their natural deformity exposed. Gentlemen, I thank you for your attention. and in the name of the several officers elected at the last municipal election, invite you to pass across the street, and partake of some refresh-

At the conclusion of the speech, three cheers were given for the Mayor, and the company adjourned to the restaurant, where the remainder of the evening was spent as stated above.

LECTURE ON MUSIC.-Mr. R. M. Mc-INTOSH, author of Tabor, or, the Richmond Collection of Sacred Music, has returned to Alexandria from a lecturing tour in Pennsylvania, and will give a free lecture on the Elements and Practice of Sacred Vocal Music, in the Lecture Room of the M. E. Church South, to-morrow (Friday) evening at 72 o'clock. Citizens generally, and Church members especially, are cordially invited to attend.

& A Young Lady returning to her coun try home after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's toilet. By its use any lady or gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and be utiful.
